

[Report No. 137.]

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

MAY 5, 1852.

Mr. GOODENOW, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported the following bill ; which was read twice, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House tomorrow.

A BILL

For the relief of James Glynn.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Repre-
2 sentatives of the United States of America in Congress
3 assembled, That the proper accounting officers of the 4 treasury be, and they are hereby authorized and directed
5 to allow to commander James Glynn, in the settlement of 6 his accounts as acting purser of the United States ship
7 Preble, on her late cruise, the sum of thirteen hundred and 8 thirty-eight dollars and seventy cents, that being the 9 amount of public money, clothing and small stores which 10 he lost by theft or embezzlement during the same cruise ;
11 and the further sum of thirty-four dollars and sixty-two 12 cents, which he ordered to be credited and paid to one of 13 the seamen of said vessel, for clothing stolen from him by 14 pirates, and which has been charged to the said James 15 Glynn by the accounting officers of the treasury.
